

NASCAR ON DISPLAY AT TASTE

Huntington Beach...The 8th annual A Taste of Huntington Beach on tap for Sunday, April 20, will host the No.38 Great Clips Toyota NASCAR showcar, which will be on display minus its driver, Jason Leffler.

The car is presently on tour throughout the country and will make the Taste between 12-4pm at the Huntington Beach Sports Complex, 18100 Golden West Street.

On hand will be representatives from the Braun Racing Team who will be handing out autograph “hero” cards of driver Jason Leffler, a commemorative for fans.

A Taste of Huntington Beach is produced by the Huntington Beach Restaurant Association in relationship with the Friends of the Children’s Library, one of the recipients of this year’s Taste. Additionally, proceeds will also go to Project Self-Sufficiency.

The Taste will bring together over 40 eateries, breweries and wineries to promote dining in Surf City.

Tickets are now $60 per person for the all-inclusive event, which includes BBQ tastes, live entertainment, silent auction and more. For additional information:

hbrestaurants.com

###